Eller College branch in top global ranking

ARIZONA DAILY STAR

The Financial Times newspaper recognized UA Eller College of Management's McGuire Center for Entrepreneurship and its Management Information Systems department in its global top 10 MBA rankings.

The 2008 full-time rankings put McGuire No. 6 in the world for a second year, and MIS as No. 9 in the first year of its information-technology-specialty category.

The UA said alumni feedback was the sole criterion used to develop the Financial Times' rankings, which evaluate business schools from around the world.
